

Tartars Can Clinch Title Tonight

38 NOVEMBER 10, 1960

North Gunning for 'Hawks in Bay Tilt

North High returns to its "lucky stadium" tonight to meet co-league-leading and favored Redondo in Seahawk Bowl at 8 p.m. in the Beach City.

And after last week's dismal 25-6 setback at the hands of Hawthorne, the Saxons will need all the luck they can get.

It was three seasons ago, during the '57 campaign, that North posted the school's first varsity football triumph, ending a 17 game losing string, 6-0, over Redondo in the same Seahawk Bowl.

IF NORTH'S passing attack has settled down after blowing sky high against Hawthorne last week, Coach Bob Shoup's charges just might upset Redondo.

All high school football games will be played tonight in the South Bay area due to a school holiday tomorrow, Veterans' Day.

dondo's appalart and knock the Seahawks out of the race for the Bay League championship.

Currently, Redondo, Hawthorne, and Morningside are tied for first place, with 4-1 records and two games to go. North is 2-2-1.

But the spunky Seahawks, who dumped North 13-7 last year on North's home stomping grounds, have already beaten both of the Saxons' intra-city cousins this semester.

Torrance was a 6-0 season opening loser to Redondo in a non-league game, and South bit the dust 26-19 four weeks ago.

Redondo is a hard hitting club with several swift, hard-to-bring-down backs.

Little Ronnie Serrato (135) and fullback Jim Allison are the Seahawks' prime offensive workhorses, taking hand-offs from sophomore quarterback Jon Fowler, who's developing into one of the league's best.

North has its own soph signal calling dandy in Carey Hubert, who, up to last week, was the passing sensation of the conference. Carey went into the Hawthorne game with a .750 completion percentage, but hit on only six of 20 tosses as North absorbed its worst setback of the season.

Redondo has rolled up a 6-1 season record, with league triumphs over Leuzinger 34-0, South 26-19, Mira Costa 26-7, and Morningside, 25-6. The Seahawks' lone loss was to Inglewood, 19-0.

North beat the Sentinels handily, 19-6, but has been beaten by Morningside and Hawthorne. The Saxons other win was over Leuzinger 35-0, with a 13-13 tie with South in the middle.

South Solid Choice Over Leuzinger

With the first taste of Bay League victory still on their lips, South High's Spartans will try to make it two in a row and stretch inept Leuzinger's scoreless game string to eight tonight at 8 at Torrance High.

Last week South tripped Mira Costa, 12-6, as Quarterback Joe Austin and End Mike Andrews teamed up on a 21-yard scoring pass with less than two minutes remaining.

THIS POTENT passing combination is one of the big reasons why the Spartans are solid, odds-on choices to whip Leuzinger in the next-to-last Bay League game.

The winless and scoreless Olympians have been racked for 199 points by seven opponents.

According to Coach David Tellefson, South will try to balance its offensive pass-run attack in hopes of generating some new spark for next week's season-ender against Inglewood.

EXPECTED TO see first-time action at the QB slot tonight is sophomore Dan Ely, up from the JV's, who'll relieve Austin if South runs up a lead.

Ely (6-ft., 170) played the entire game on defense against Costa last week. He's the logical successor to Austin next year.

Three new faces will break into the starting line-up, tackle Allen Walti on offense and guards Larry Kraugstad and Tom Carroll on defense.

49ers Gun for CCAA Runner-Up Spot Against L.A. State

Long Beach State, which saw its hopes for its first league football crown fly away at Fresno last week when an opposing halfback sloshed 95 yards with an intercepted pass, takes on Los Angeles State Saturday for the second-place position.

He'll be chief target of Tartar passes tonight.

Torrance Fans Given Directions To Culver High

Local football fans who plan to follow Torrance's Tartars to Culver City tonight in their Pioneer League crucial can use the following directions to Centaur Field.

North on Sepulveda Blvd. (101 Highway) to Braddock Drive in Culver City. Turn right on Braddock for one block to Harter. Another right turn and you're in the vicinity of the Culver High parking lots and the visitors entrance gate.

Kick-off is scheduled for 8 p.m.

Torrance Favored by 6 Over Culver City; CIF Playoff Berth at Stake

Torrance's Tartars will be bucking a long-time jinx as well as Culver City's potent Centaurs tonight when the two football teams pair-up in the Pioneer League's game of the year.

A berth in the California Inter-scholastic Federation's (CIF) small school playoffs and at least a chunk of the Pioneer League championship are the prizes at stake. Kick-off time is 8 p.m. in Culver City.

Torrance, a six point favorite, is shooting for the school's sixth straight victory but Culver City's tough defensive line, tradition, and an injury to halfback Jerry McLean will be tough to overcome.

Torrance has never qualified for the CIF football playoffs, although several times Tartar editions have gone down to the last game of the season before getting turned away.

However, this season Coach Iv Kasten's outfit has come up with a remarkable and explosive scoring machine along with a tight defensive unit which, if they're both in working order tonight, could end a 14 year championship drought.

In four league games, Torrance has scored 126 points, and at least three touchdowns an outing. Meanwhile, the Tartars have been nicked for just six touchdowns.

But Jerry McLean, the team's leading offensive ground gainer, will probably sit out tonight's all-important tilt with a re-injured sprained ankle.

Jerry saw action last week against El Segundo (19-13) but was ineffective with the bad foot. He resprained it this week and didn't even practice Tuesday.

Mike Tracy, a double threat with his running and passing abilities, will move into McLean's starting left halfback spot. Tracy has scored four TDs this season.

"If we don't beat Culver, we're positively out of the CIF playoffs," Coach Kasten warned his team this week. Culver would probably get the nod despite a 13-6 loss to Aviation.

Torrance beat Aviation, 21-6.

Another tradition which the Tartars are hoping to crack tonight is the Pioneer League's tendency for championship ties. In 1958, North, El Segundo, and Morningside wound up in a three-way deadlock.

Last year, South and Aviation tied for the championship. And if Culver wins the big one tonight, another three-way stalemate will probably evolve.

Kasten is hoping that his reliable defensive wall of Joel Redmon, Bruce Hendrix, Eric Hansen, Julian Almarex and John Carlson can contain Culver City's highly rated line and plunging backs.

The Centaurs have a fairly consistent passing attack to go along with the running of high scoring fullback Alan Curr, who's scored 42 points thus far out of CC's fly, wing, and straight-T offenses.

In two previous meetings, Torrance has posted wins of 33-6 (1958) and 25-6 (1959) over the Centaurs.

AGAINST EAST L.A. SATURDAY

Veres-Lorick Offensive Duel To Feature Homecoming Tilt

Campus royalty, floats, and a battle for fourth place in the Metro Conference between El Camino College and the East LA Huskies will highlight the Warriors' annual Homecoming at 2 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

El Camino will depend largely upon the passing of Ron Veres, who has tossed for 1319 yards in seven games for an average of 188 yards per contest.

The All-Metro candidate has completed 99 of 177 for a 56 per cent completion record, and 12 TDs, with end Paul Burleson garnering seven of the scoring aeriels.

AGAINST A hapless Harbor crew, Veres completed seven of ten for 163 yards.

Off a 44-0 Harbor victory, the Warriors will be out to make a carbon copy of last year's 38-31 victory over, what was then, a cellar-dwelling Huskie team.

With Jim Valmore back in form, the Tribe has a new offensive weapon after runs of 52 and 32 yards in the first quarter of the Harbor fray.

Joe Cunningham will also be a big factor after a 38-yard scamper against Harbor.

AGAINST HARBOR, Burleson scored 10 points to up his league-leading total for ends to 50 points.

East LA will not be out of the picture, with former All-City halfback Anthony Lorick carrying the brunt of the attack. Willie Galbraith, ex-Fremont ace, will pair with Lorick to give the Huskies two scat-backs.

LORICK ALSO carries some weight on his 8-foot frame, tipping the scales at 188 pounds. He's been clocked at 9.8 in the 100-yard dash.

All-City center, Skip Husbands, will furnish the blocking with quarterback Frank Gomez doing the passing.

CELEBS COMPETE

Golfers Tee Off in Gardena Open

Probably the best field in years will compete, including hardened tournament campaigners Jerry Barber of Wilshire CC; Marty Furgol, Sherman Oaks; George Bayer, South

Pasadena; Bob Duden, Portland, Ore.; Joe Kirkwood, Jr., Studio City, and Eric Monti, Hillcrest.

Competing in the top amateur flight will be ex-heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis, actor Alan Hale and former Olympic swimming champion Johnny (Tarzan) Weissmuller.

The low scoring 90 pros and amateurs will continue play in the second round Saturday. The final trek goes Sunday with a $750 top prize dangling.

INJURED . . . Jerry McLean, Torrance's leading ground gainer, will be sidelined for tonight's Pioneer League crucial against Culver City. McLean is shown here peeling off 13 yard gain in early season Tartar victory. (Herald Photo)
